ST. PAUL, Minn.—Join Hazelden and Assistance in Recovery in the second in our series of free educational events providing information to family members and the loved ones of those struggling with addiction.

WHO AiR's regional director, Gordon Brown, presents information about intervention. Following the presentation, Brown will be available for personal interviews.

WHAT It's not just about helping your loved one. Alcohol intervention and drug intervention services are the most immediate and effective way to help struggling individuals access recovery and allow the family to heal. Brown discusses how AiR clinicians recognize the frightening, confusing and debilitating aspects of behavioral health and the need for some people to simply be rescued.

WHEN December 14, 2009 from 6 to 8 p.m.

WHERE Hazelden's Fellowship Club at 680 Stewart Avenue, St. Paul, MN 55102. Call Hazelden at 800-561-8158 for more information or to register early.

Media allocated seating is available. To secure a position please contact either Paul Hamblin or Hazelden's Fellowship Club.
