ST. PAUL, Minn.—Join Hazelden and Assistance in Recovery in the third in our series of free educational events providing information to family members and the loved ones of those struggling with addiction.

WHO AiR's regional director, Gordon Brown, presents information about families living with addiction. Following the presentation, Brown will be available for personal interviews.

WHAT The event will address how to help loved ones into treatment, work with insurance and help ourselves. AiR recognizes the fear and confusion addiction creates when it lives in your home and takes over your family. Our organization of counselors, professional intervention specialists and consultants provide fast and effective crisis management services through a proven protocol of education, action and healing.

WHEN January 18, 2010 from 6 to 8 p.m.

WHERE Hazelden's Fellowship Club at 680 Stewart Avenue, St. Paul, MN 55102. Call Hazelden at 800-561-8158 for more information or to register early.

Media allocated seating is available. To secure a position please contact either Paul Hamblin or Hazelden's Fellowship Club.
