MEDIA ADVISORY

Contact: Paul Hamblin at 651-222-6740 or phamblin@a-i-r.com.

ST. PAUL, Minn.— Join Hazelden and Assistance in Recovery in the last in our series of free educational events providing information to family members and the loved ones of those struggling with addiction.

WHO AiR clinical director, James Stolz presents information about case management for people in recovery, focusing on building resiliency and management of substance dependence. Following the presentation, Stolz will be available for personal interviews.

WHAT The event will address our comprehensive, 12 month Recovery Assistance Program (RAP). This program provides support and accountability through working one-on-one with a designated counselor and maintaining collateral contact with the support team. RAP identifies potential for relapse before it happens, offering peace of mind to parents, significant others and employers, and producing dramatically improved recovery rates.

WHEN February 8, 2010 with 5:30 p.m. registration and presentation from 6 to 8 p.m.

WHERE Hazelden's Fellowship Club at 680 Stewart Avenue, St. Paul, MN 55102. Call Hazelden at 800-561-8158 for more information or to register early.

Media allocated seating is available. To secure a position please contact either Paul Hamblin or Hazelden's Fellowship Club.
